URPC and MGA Consultants Join Forces; New CEO Named

Columbus, Ohio—April 27, 2016. United Retirement Plan Consultants, Inc. (URPC) is pleased to announce it has joined forces with MGA Consultants, Inc. (MGA) in a move to expand and improve the delivery of high quality retirement plan services and innovative solutions to clients. In addition, the Board of Directors of URPC has appointed Lee Bachu as Chief Executive Officer effective immediately, and she is now serving as a member of the Board of Directors. Ms. Bachu succeeds John M. Davis, the company's current CEO.

Ms. Bachu founded MGA Consultants, Inc., a regional third-party qualified plan administrator (TPA), in 1997 and was responsible for the management and oversight of all of its corporate functions, including finance, strategy, business process optimization, vendor platforms, innovation and technology development and use.

"I am honored to have been elected as URPC's next CEO. It is a privilege to be part of an organization that delivers high quality TPA services, and I intend to vigorously pursue the highest level of innovation and market performance for our clients and our employees," said Ms. Bachu. "There is opportunity ahead and to seize it, we must be focused, we must be client centric, and we must use technology and innovation to accelerate our ability to efficiently and promptly deliver best-in-class services."

"During this time of transformation, there is no better person to lead URPC's growing organization than Lee Bachu," said Robert M. Eversole, a member of the URPC Board of Directors. "Lee is a proven leader with unparalleled TPA knowledge base, business vision and record of success in the delivery of retirement plan TPA and related services built on best practices. Her vision for process optimization, innovation and service delivery is exactly what URPC needs as the company enters its next chapter of expanded service offerings and growth."
